

I travel all around the country and satellite radio is the only way to keep informed of the weather and traffic when many spots of the country have no radio coverage. I urge the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160.
Respectfully,

James Jensen